The Civil, Administrative, Labor and Economic Chamber is staffed by five judges and several judicial secretaries who are in charge of the development of the jurisdictional activity of the Chamber.

As a single court it serves all the municipalities of the province, which reflects the high commitment of its workers to deliver justice with quality, certainty and efficiency on behalf of the people of Cuba.

Among the main lines of work assumed by the courtroom are:

- Trials, hearings and appeals.
- Execution.
- Family Courts
