

Duties of Express System Passengers

Category: Express-Railways

Published: Tuesday, 24 May 2016 19:29

Hits: 1055

- Fulfil with what is established in these regulations and as many other provisions as may be applicable to them.
- Pack the packages according to the established requirements.
- Observe the order with the express agencies and stations.
- Pay the amount resulting from the application of the storage rate.
- Not obstruct without justification any of the common areas for the use and service of the clients in the agencies and railway stations with express service.
- Do not dispatch as express packages the following:
 - Meat or other easily decomposed food products.
 - Toxic, flammable, explosive, radioactive, corrosive and chemical substances.
 - Objects that may damage or soil the express car and customers' belongings.